And with certain programs offered online, you can learn in the format that fits your life.

We place values and personal development at the core of learning.

To prepare well-rounded professionals, we encourage students to determine their own personal value system. Our curriculum will help you build a framework of compassion from which you will launch your career.

As The Premier Life Skills University, HPU emphasizes the development of character and kindness, helping you become the best version of yourself. You will build a variety of valuable skills, such as excellence in communication, critical thinking, problem-solving, cultural competence, and collaboration. The growth and development that is fostered by an HPU education will make you a valuable leader and community member — no matter where your passions lead you.

“I chose High Point University because of their commitment to graduate well-rounded MBA candidates. I feel like I have the flexibility to pursue a career in healthcare or any other corporate setting that I set my mind to.”

- Jacob Maggioncalda, current MBA student

HPU opportunities go beyond the classroom.

We educate our students to become agile professionals equipped with the most up-to-date industry knowledge. With hands-on experiences at your fingertips, HPU will fully prepare you to become a leader in your field.

We believe real-world opportunities bring essential context to classroom content. For the past decade, our faculty have ensured that at least a quarter of everything taught at HPU has an experiential component. With opportunities for on-campus and off-campus internships, immersive community service initiatives, and research in HPU's state-of-the-art clinical labs, you'll graduate with the in-depth knowledge and hands-on skills that will set you apart.

“What I enjoy most about teaching is using my practical real-world experiences to help students understand concepts that they would not otherwise learn from a textbook.”

- Dr. Brad Venable, Assistant Professor of Supply Chain Management

HPU students learn from the best.

At HPU, industry leaders actively engage in the classroom, offering invaluable insights that bridge the gap between theory and practice. You'll gain mentorship from inspiring faculty with up-to-date industry knowledge while taking advantage of the best facilities higher education has to offer.

Your HPU experience will be shaped by expert professors. You'll learn from faculty who are often still working in the field, equipping you with the most current skills. Plus, HPU students can connect with world-renowned innovators such as Steve Wozniak (Apple co-founder) and Marc Randolph (Netflix co-founder) through HPU-facilitated roundtables and forums.

Plus, we recently spent $200 million to enhance the cutting-edge facilities in our Innovation Corridor, which is home to the Webb School of Engineering, Wanek School of Natural Sciences, Fred Wilson School of Pharmacy, and Congdon School of Health Sciences. You'll experience a truly transformative education at High Point University, where expert mentorship meets cutting-edge academics.

Our environment fosters the whole person.

We've cultivated a university where you can thrive as a professional — and as a person. Our picturesque campus fosters open and peaceful minds and encourages innovation and motivation.

We believe people are inspired by their environment, so we ensure HPU students are consistently surrounded by excellence as they are nurtured in mind, body, and spirit. From the 28 botanical gardens to the motivational quotes and historic sculptures lining the Kester International Promenade, HPU's campus was designed to immerse you in a tranquil environment that's filled with opportunities to learn, grow, and explore. Beyond our campus, you will find dynamic economic and cultural regions in Winston-Salem and Greensboro, both less than half an hour away.

Location also counts for our remote students. HPU's online offerings, such as our in-demand MHA and MBA programs, allow students to earn their degree wherever it is most convenient for them. This freedom helps you balance your busy schedule and maintain your current work commitments. Plus, MBA students can attend a free on-campus summit, where they have meaningful in-person interactions with faculty, connect with peers, and experience the beauty of our beloved campus.

Choose an advanced degree program that empowers you to be your best.
